*Industry Shutdown

While we are back from early January, the standard building industry shutdown period extends until the end of the month. Therefore, we will be open with a skeleton staff and many of our suppliers will remain closed. Please bear this in mind when making plans for your new home.

We would like to thank you for all your support during the year. We have loved working with you! May 2018 bring you good health and provide many great memories in your new home.

Happy holidays from all the staff at Wincrest Homes!
